Sponsorship Overview

Sponsoring the Fall 2009 Environmental Markets Place Conference gives organizations invaluable opportunities to support EMA and gain recognition and exposure. The conference will bring together over 200 environmental professionals currently engaged in emissions trading, consulting and policy. While the event is educational, the conference is also designed to provide high level opportunities to network with the delegates and increase your business contacts. As described on the following page there are a variety of sponsorships available, including receptions, luncheons, and promotional items. In appreciation for your support, the EMA provides a generous package of benefits to its sponsors.

All Sponsors receive the following benefits:

- Corporate logo with link on the EMA website
- 25 - 50 % discount on registration fees
- Discounts on exhibition
- Display of corporate logo on meeting materials
- Conference handout with logo and company description
- Appropriate signage with logo at sponsored event
- One promotional item included in conference registration bag
- Use of meeting pre-registration list
